IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D. Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(Copyright 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 8

PETER AT LYDDA AND JOPPA.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 9:32-43.

GOLDEN TEXT—The prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up.—James 5:15.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL.—Luke 17:5-10; 18:35-43.

PRIMARY TOPIC—What a Kind Woman Did.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What Peter Did at Lydda and Joppa.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Beauty and Influence of an Unselfish Life.

In order to grasp the significance of this lesson, we should recall the condition which prevailed in the church as suggested in verse 31. Three characteristics are outstanding.

1. Freedom From Persecution.

Saul, the ringleader of the persecuting forces, had just recently been converted, thereby disorganizing their forces, allowing the church to enjoy a breathing spell. This period of rest did not result in its growing lazy, indifferent, worldly, and forgetful of God, but in growth in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus.

2. Spiritual Growth and Development.

The real meaning of the word "edified" is "fortified up." This does not mean merely that the members were being instructed and comforted, but that strenuous efforts on the part of the individual members, as well as the body as a whole, were being made for the advancement of the divine life. The word "edify" contains the metaphor of some one building or structure. As suggested by another, this metaphor involves (1) a foundation, Tale is Jesus Christ—no other dare be laid (1 Cor. 3:12-15). (2) A continuous progress. This means that a Christian's activities are purposeful and that the work he undertakes moves forward with the proper progress. (3) Persistent effort. This means that the close of day's work begins the foundation upon which tomorrow's work must be built. Thus day by day his life is being raised higher and higher, as each separate round of material is laid up by strenuous efforts. (4) A completion. Finally the work is done, the building is completed, the top stone is brought forth and placed.

3. Outward Growth.

Residing up within the church comes the whole work to be admired and revered by those without, including them to come and identify themselves with the church. There can be no forward movement without unless there is a corresponding movement within.

Our lesson today is the record of two miraculous miracles. They are the gracious signs wrought since the days of Christ. The dreadful scourge of pain is vanquished, and a corpse is re-united by the departed soul. The occurrence is here of the miracle in its keeping with the movements of the church at this time. The Lord had promised these signs as they went forth with the gospel message. They were given as encouragements to the disciples, to convince them that the gospel did not lose any of its power by being spread, but rather that its power increased. As the church goes everywhere preaching he Word there will be a corresponding manifestation of power.

I. The Healing of Enea (vv. 32-35).

This early condition appealed to Peter, just as men today should appeal to us in their semi-dead state. Like his Master, Peter could not refuse the needed help. In this he did not direct attention to himself, but confidently appealed to the power in the name of Christ. "Jesus Christ healeth thee." The man who had kept his bed for eight long years immediately arose and made his bed. When the Lord heals it is done instantly. Peter wisely kept this miracle from being the end by making it the means to the end. That end was the preaching of the gospel. This brought meaningful fine results, for "all that dwelt in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord."

II. The Raising of Dorcas (vv. 36-43).

This woman was full of good works and alms-deeds which she did, not talked of doing. She was a practical Christian woman of the kind that gets down to the practical way of showing her love by doing deeds of helpfulness. Her death was a real loss, as was evidenced by the mourning of those who had been helped. When this good woman died and was dead the disciples sent for Peter. Peter put them all forth. At his command her soul came back to live in her body. This again caused them to believe on the Lord.

Read the Bible and Think.

"It is a good plan to read a book of the Bible through each day of resting in a shady garden, or on a cliff looking over the sea; then to close the book and think."—Church Family Newspaper.

Transformed into New Man.

As iron put into the fire loses its rust and becometh clearly red hot, so he that wholly turneth himself into God puts off all sluggishness, and is transformed into a new man.—Thomas a Kempis.

"Let us look at the A Chicago girl stole $2,000 from a trust company two years ago. Recently she returned the $2,000 with $200 at interest. Yet there are those who persist in believing, and declaring, that a woman has no conscience.—Grit.

GIRL SCOUTS BATTLE TO MAKE PRICES DROP

Many Troops in This State Are Interested in Defeated Spending Plan Outlined by National Director.

More than seventy thousand Girl Scouts, according to an announcement made recently at National Girl Scout headquarters, 189 Lexington Avenue, New York, have adopted the principle of defeated spending as a means of combating hysterics, prices of the present day and "doing their bit" to help put the nation on a stable economic basis. Instead of spending all of the money that they earn or get from parents as gifts or allowances, hundreds of these patriotic girls in each of the eighty three local councils throughout the United States are investing in Treasury Savings Certificates and War Savings Stamps, cashable at the majority of banks and trust companies, or at local post offices.

Virginia Girl Scout Troops interested in this announcement are as follows: Troop 1, Kerrsville, Miss Frances Wolfe, captain; Troop 1, Blacksburg, Mrs. Mary Rasle, captain; Troop 1, Cherrydale, Miss Ethel King, captain; Troop 1, Cranes Nest, Miss Minnie Fields, captain; Troop 1, East Stone Gap, Miss Christie Jones, captain; Troop 1, Exter, Mrs. R. A. Jones, captain; Troop 1, Fredericksburg, Miss Emily Heflin, captain; Troop 1, Hamilton, Miss Eleanor Hawins, captain; Troop 3, Hampton, Miss Katherine Peck, captain; Troop 3, Hampton, Mrs. Geo. R. Sharrow, captain; Leesburg, Mrs. S. J. Miller, captain; Troop 1, Lynchburg, Miss Annie Owen, captain; Troop 1, Manassas, Mrs. Edith Sanders, captain; Troop 1, Newport News, Mrs. W. B. Freshefer, captain; Phoebus, Mrs. Fannie Mann, captain; Port Norfolk, Miss Mildred James, captain; Troop 1, Portsmouth, Miss Agnes Earnest, Troop 2, Portsmouth, Miss Ellen Lash, captain; Troop 4, Portsmouth, Miss Lena Kurp, captain; Troop 8, Portsmouth, Miss Anne Todd Foster, captain; Troop 6, Portsmouth, Miss Charlotte Cowell, captain; Troop 1, Quantico, Mrs. Nellie M. Dyer, captain; Roanoke, Mrs. A. R. Brooks, Miss Marion Bolinger, Mrs. H. E. Reynolds, captains; South Boston, Miss Mary Harwood, captain; Staunton, Miss Mary Miller, captain; Tom's Creek, Miss Grace Deaton, captain; University of Virginia, Miss Margaret Carter, captain; Wytheville, Miss Kate Terry Crush, captain; Wise, Mrs. Edmund D. Vicars, captain; Richmond—Miss Eva Rowell, Miss Hazel Shackleford, Miss Hannah Engleberg, Mrs. Florence Dooly, Miss Rosabud Smith, Mrs. W. B. Saunders.

Miss Mary Davis, Miss Hallie Atkinson, captains.

"One of the big Scout laws is that a Girl Scout must be thrifty," says Mrs. Jane Lester Rippin, national director of Girl Scouts. "This means that a Scout must avoid all useless waste of every kind, must be careful when spending her money and must always remember that she should save every penny that she can, even in a safe manner. This habit of saving, if practiced regularly in youth, will make for better womanhood and will also give to the Girl Scout a surplus in time of need.

"Reports coming into National Girl Scout headquarters show that the idea behind the government's 'Thrift and save' movement appeals to Girl Scouts. They like the Treasury Savings Certificates, for they are forward looking girls. That the investment now of $53.40 means the return in January, 1923, of $100, with the money meanwhile absolutely safeguarded from loss through accident or theft, shows them that the certificate is sound. And where are the girls of America who do not have dreams of the days in the near future? Some want to give a present to their mothers some wish to save for a trip; others desire to start a fund for educational purposes. There are only a few of the many reasons prompting girls to save and to invest now in government securities."

What Wee Did.

Wee Whittle, a teamster down in Lowell, Ark., was so patriotic during the fall of 1918, before the Hun was finally vanquished, that he put a mortgage on his team and wagon for $50 and bought War Savings Stamps in his desire to do his duty by the government. Some thought Wee was doing more than his financial strength warranted. But he just went down into the woods, cut up coal and sold it and the mortgage was soon lifted. Now Wee is a big man of means, because he realizes their value and finds he can save.

Crew Demanded Stamps.

Clean up day on the battleship New Jersey means something more than hard work to the gobs on board that craft. It means a decided addition to Uncle Sam's fund that is drawing interest in the form of War Savings Stamps. While the war ship was anchored in Boston harbor recently, the crew gathered up all the obsolete shirts, dirks, cast off jumpers and other clothing, blues and dungarees, and sought out a junk dealer. The dealer was willing to pay cash for the junk offering but the crew demanded payment in War Savings Stamps and got it. All condemned material on board is being carefully stored away in expectation for another clean up.

Swift Locomotive.

Men can run about 25 feet a second, that being the world's record for a hundred yard sprint. Contrary to common supposition, skaters are no swifter than runners, the world's records for both being precisely the same—22.5 seconds for a hundred yards. Runners on skis have, however, made as much as 72 feet a second, and in leaping on skis more than 100 feet a second is attained.

POSTER BASED ON ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN AT ERIVAN, ARMENIA, BY DR. M. S. LITTLEFIELD.

He is only one of 250,000 helpless child victims of Turkish cruelty and oppression in Western Asia. Clad just as he stands in the picture this forlorn little fellow, with hunger-stricken cheeks, hopeless mouth and frail, starved body, was found sunning in the streets of Igdir, Armenia, by Dr. Milton S. Littlefield of the Near East Relief. He was taken to a Near East Relief orphanage where it was found that his only earthly possession was the single garment in which he stood—a worn, patched blanket made from a burlap sack.

"I saw this ragged little fellow on one of the busiest business streets of Erivan, not far from the orphanage," said Dr. Littlefield. "He was wandering aimlessly about and no one was paying the slightest attention to him. I did not pose him; the picture shows just the way he stood when I backed him up against a nearby wall."

The photograph is the basis of a striking poster now being distributed by Near East Relief.

An American $2 Bill Did This

Motherless, fatherless, homeless nameless, hungry and clad only in rags, the pathetic little three-year-old shown at the left wandered into a Near East Relief orphanage in Armenia. Another photograph of the same child, shown at the right, was taken a week later, this time showing him happy, well clothed and well fed.

Somewhere in America is the hungry man or woman who contributed the $2 bill which wrought this miracle. More than a quarter million other bewildered little victims of Turkish cruelty and oppression are knocking at the doors of the Near East Relief orphanages in Western Asia. Many more American $2 bills are needed now to let them in and to care for them until they can care for themselves.

CLEARING UP THE BABY'S EYES

The American Red Cross Public Health nurses trained and supported to treat numerous cases of baby's blood-shot eyes, caused by neglectful mothers and nurses, if allowed to go uncorrected to result in serious eye complications. In the picture the nurse is seen treating a baby's infected eyes at the same time instructing the mother how to act herself in similar circumstances. Here now as a worker at local Red Cross Headquarters for the third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2-11.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes:

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain.

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . . I could advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

Hixburg

Mr. J. C. Leppe filled his regular appointment here on Sunday and preached to a good congregation and we are glad to see his good voice looking so well after the beginning of the New Year.

Little Blanche Swan was very sick last week with the croup.

We are having an unusual cold spell at this time.

Mrs. John Moseley, of South Boston, is on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Baxter Liebolt.

Mr. J. S. Young, one of our best citizens, born 6th of November 1832, died January 24, 1920. He joined the Confederate Army at the beginning and was severely wounded at Sharpsburg "Antietam Creek" Sept. 17, 1862, sustaining the loss of his left arm after which he returned to his home made a good crop in 1863 and gave no tenth of all he made to the support of his government as he wished to be a help to his country. Mr. Young was a prosperous and energetic farmer. The writer was one of the guests present at his Golden wedding of fiftieth anniversary on Oct. 13, 1908 at which time I heard him say that in spring of 1863 he rode some back 100 miles to Orange county to seed corn and on the return let one of his neighbors have half of what seed he got and that he was still plant ing his corn when all others were always first on to sell. And as we come to the close of a perfect day so with this mans life as near as possible for one to be. The great esteem in which he was held by the people was fully demonstrated by the large crowd present at his burial and the many flowers notwithstanding the bad weather. His children and grandchildren have the sympathy of the community.

GIVE ME SOME WAR SAVING STAMPS

MANY PERSONS HELD BY HYPNOTIC SPELL

Erroneously Imagine That Value of Money Lies Within Itself and Not in Those Things It Will Buy.

Thousands of Americans are under the hypnotic spell of money. With historical viewpoint they have come to regard money as a great treasure in itself whereas money has its real significance only in what it buys for us. A man's reward for his work does not depend merely on what he earns. For the true reward of labor is the service the worker is able to obtain with the money he earns.

It is evident that a man may earn twice as much as he once did in terms of money and yet be no better off if the goods he needs cost twice or three times what they formerly cost. It is apparent to all that apart from increase or decrease in wages as expressed in money there is a wide difference in the real value earned by persons receiving the same in actual cash.

What a person gets out of the world in return for what he gives it, depends finally on the choice made in the disposing of his income. One man by wise buying, careful and consistent saving and safe and profitable investment in such securities as War Savings Stamps, Treasury Savings Certificates and Liberty Bonds, may transform the reward of his labor into all the necessities and comforts of life that he requires and even the luxuries. Another, gaining exactly the same sum in actual cash, may, through waste, extravagance and failure to save, find himself unable to secure even the necessities.

Whether or not a worker earns a sum which fulfils his estimate of what he should be his just reward for labor is the responsibility for the way he spends what he has, remains with him and with him alone and cannot be transferred to any other person. Prices of necessities and wages may ebb and flow like the tide but the fundamental fact remains unchanged that apart from the nature and volume of the earnings every man must, within limits, determine the richness of the reward of his labor. He can accomplish this by the amount of restraint and intelligence he exercises in spending what he has to spend and in saving and investing what he has to save.

SCALPER OF WAR SAVING STAMPS ARRESTED.

From every Federal Reserve District in the United States information is being received by the Treasury Department in Washington that a determined war is being waged against persons, who, by preying upon the unwary, are trafficking in War Saving and Treasury Certificates.

The latest information regarding the activity of the "Scalpers" comes from St. Louis, where two arrests have been made by Deputy United States Marshals. Both prisoners were released on $5,000 bonds and are now waiting for a hearing before the Federal commissioner.

One of the men is said to have altered registered numbers on War Savings Certificates. It being alleged St. Louis postal authorities that in this office were found $678 in Saving Certificates from which registration numbers had been erased. It is charged that the other of men had in his possession worth of altered government ties.

of the suspects is employed by Louis local wage concern; the is the proprietor of a hotel.

WHY CERTIFICATES ARE SO ATTRACTIVE

Unusual Features Make New Government Securities Splendid Medium in Which to Invest Savings.

Details of the features which make the new Treasury Savings Certificates of $100 and $1,000 maturity value attractive investments have been compiled in pamphlet form by the Saving Division of the Treasury Department. In addition to the regulations governing the sale of these "baby" securities, the pamphlet contains the rulings of the Secretary of the Treasury on various questions concerning the new issue.

One of the interesting features of these certificates that make them unique investments is that they may be loaned and registered in the names of an infant. Every certificate is issued and registered as a means of affording protection to the purchaser. Certificates may also be issued and registered jointly to two persons and may be made payable to either of the two purchasers or to both.

Rulings governing payment of certificates to deceased owners are also contained in the pamphlet, with special mention made for each legal requirement according to laws of various states regarding wills, etc. At the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, in event of no other legal obstacles, payment will be made at the following order of classes:

First, husband, wife, parent of kin or other person who pays the reasonable funeral expenses of the last illness or other preferred claims against the decedents estate; second, creditor for funeral expenses, expense of last illness or other preferred claims; third, husband or wife and children; fourth, father or mother, any other of the next of kin of the deceased.

UNCLE SAM SAYS HERE'S LISER TV BONDS BROTHER.

Treasury Savings Certificates are a new issue of United States government securities. They are of $100 and $1,000 denominations. They run for five years and bear 4 per cent interest, compounded every three months.

They are little brothers of the Liberty Bond and big brothers of the War Savings Stamp.

A $100 Savings Certificate costs $84.40 this month. It will be worth $100 January 1, 1924. It is cashable any time with accrued interest at any postoffice on ten days' notice. It is a government obligation.

A $1,000 savings certificate costs $844 this month. It will be redeemed by Uncle Sam January 1, 1924 for $1,000. It is cashable with accrued interest at any time at any postoffice on ten days' notice.

Treasury savings certificates are registered in your name, thus insuring against loss.

BRITISH NOW SAVING LARGE SUMS OF MONEY.

In spite of the extremities of war, the volume of saving demonstrates that England has grown tremendously in the last five years according to the comptroller of the British Post Office Savings Bank. Only twice, the comptroller states, was the flow of savings deposits interrupted: once by the war loan of 1915 and once by the 5 per cent loan of 1917.

Total deposits increased despite the fact that depositors transferred over $1,000,000,000 from their postal savings into the various issues of the government. The recent figures show conclusively, the comptroller asserts, the power of saving of the British public for the amount diverted to the government's issues has not been withheld or dissipated but must still be included in the savings of the nation.

Many Interesting Reports Made of Her People.

The school authorities of the district have been notified that the State board of education and granted the loan of $6000, which Maysville district applied for, which is to be used in completing the new high school building here. One of the teachers in the high school tendered her resignation to take effect on the 6th day of Feb. giving as her reason for doing so that her salary was not being paid promptly each month, but I think she may reconsider the matter and finish the session. For the information of those who are not in position to know I will state that no school warrants after being issued can be made to the Clerk of the district board to be signed and no officers have signed any warrants at that the orders are above issued by the Board of Supervisors of Virginia, I am informed that they are not entitled to be what may be necessary to protect the interest in this sale. And it is further reported that the Board of Supervisors have given for any notice to the Appomattox, and that any person may see from door of the courthouse of the Appomattox County Board of Supervisors at any time during office hours and at Good Hill the remainder of the week.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.
